SUPPLEMENT TO COLUMBIA'S MOTION FOR PARTIAL SUMMARY
JUDGMENT ON ISSUE OF ACCESS TO REFLECT CONSENT OF FRANCISCO T.
AND KATHLEEN D. RIVAS AND ROBERT L.M. AND LINDA LANDENBERG

The defendants Francisco T. and Kathleen D. Rivas and Robert L.M. and Linda Landenberg have consented to that portion of Columbia's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment which seeks access to the condemned properties by May 1, 2003. Frank Rivas, counsel for the Rivas and Landenberg defendants, sent counsel for Columbia an email which states in relevant part:

I have received your Motion for an Expedited Ruling on your Motion for Partial Summary Judgment. I did not respond to your motion as neither the Rivas nor Landenberg have any objections to Columbia Gas beginning construction on schedule. This has been our position since last fall, and remains our position to date. Please feel free to represent this to the court.

Copy of email attached as Exhibit A.

WHEREFORE, Columbia supplements its Motion for Partial Summary Judgment to reflect the consent of the defendants Francisco T. and Kathleen D. Rivas and Robert L.M. and Linda Landenberg to Columbia's Motion insofar as it grants Columbia access to the properties of the defendants beginning May 1, 2003.

Dear Kevin:

I have received your Motion for an Expedited Ruling on your Motion for Partial Summary Judgment. I did not respond to your motion as neither the Rivas nor Landenberg have any objections to Columbia Gas beginning construction on schedule. This has been our position since last fall, and remains our position to date. Please feel free to represent this to the court.

I apologize for the delay in getting the appraisals to you. My appraiser is overwhelmed with refinancing appraisals. He "promised" that he would have the report of the Rivas property by Thursday. Landenberg will rely upon the appraisal already provided by Glenn Perry.

Thanks again.

Frank Rivas
